NOTICE OF ALLOWANCE

Status of the Claims

1. This action is in response to papers filed 18 November 2004 in which claims 15, 25 and 26 were amended and claims 18 and 20. This action is further in response to the Examiner's Amendments, detailed below, discussed and agreed upon during an interview with the examiner and Ms. Amick on 16 February 2005.

The previous rejections in the Office Action dated 16 June 2004 are withdrawn in view of the amendments and Applicant's comments regarding the previous rejection of Claim 18. The limitations of rejected Claim 18 are now incorporated into Claim 15 and are further amended by the Examiner's Amendment below.

The amendments place the pending claims in condition for allowance.

Claims 15-16, 19, 21-26 are in condition for allowance.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Marilyn Amick on 16 February 2005.

- a. In Claim 15, line 3, after "is between", delete "about".
- b. In Claim 25, line 5, after "is between", delete "about".
- c. In Claim 26, line 3, after "is between", delete "about".

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The claims are drawn to a solution having a pH of between 8 and 10 and comprising NTPs at a concentration of between 2 and 200mmol/l. While the prior art teaches NTP solution at the claimed pH and at the claimed composition, the prior art does not teach or suggest combination of the known concentrations and known pH values.

Furthermore, the instant specification illustrates an unexpected increase in stability over time of the NTPS at the claimed concentration and pH (page 4, first and second full paragraphs, Fig. 6 and Example 3).

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

4. Claims 15-16, 19, 21-26 are allowed.
